

By permission of the Southern Christian Advocate, The Herald and News prints a picture of the Sunday school class of the West End Methodist Sunday school. The class was organized about eight years ago with only six or eight members. Now it numbers nearly 100. During the pastorate of the Rev. Gobe Smith there has been much interest in the class and the work has been systematized and the class has worked with a purpose—that purpose being to accomplish most for the church and the cause of the Sunday school. It is composed of men only and some of the old men, as that term is used, but they take as much interest in the class as any Sunday school child ever did in its Sunday school.

The motto of the class is: "My brother and I." A good motto. The purpose is to teach consideration of your brother's welfare in preference to your own.

The work mapped out for the class is also systematically divided up.

First, the class works for numbers, because unless you can get the men into the class you can not teach them.

Second, for the interest in the work. After you get them then you can work to get their interest.

Third, to help those who need help. Financially, socially and spiritually. Social meetings are held monthly. Annual meetings are held for a reception to the pastor and the annual banquet where good fellowship reigns supreme. The class raises about $125 a year for charitable purposes, though the object of the class is not to work finances.

The class has planned for the future, first, to hold its own and to bring every member of the church into the ranks. Second, to help the pastor in every way possible, to aid in missions and all other lines of work. Third, the class program will be varied.

The following are the officers of the class:

A. H. Bouknight, teacher; H. H. Blease, assistant teacher; Foster Wood, president; F. K. Jones, vice president; H. C. Longshore, secretary; D. D. Connelly, treasurer; J. T. Bouknight, financier, or assistant in collecting dues.

The class members are:

D. B. Chandler, J. D. Ray, Tillman Connelly, Jim Bouknight, C. M. Bouknight, J. R. Bouknight, Boyd Connelly, C. F. Layton, Robert Jackson, O. L. Raley, W. T. Woss, D. I. Franklin, W. J. Smith, T. B. Health for Sick Women

For Forty Years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Has Been Woman's Most Reliable Medicine—Here is More Proof.

To women who are suffering from some form of woman's special ills, and have a constant fear of breaking down, the three following letters ought to bring hope:—

North Crandon, Wis.—"When I was 16 years old I got married and at 18 years I gave birth to twins and it left me with very poor health. I could not walk across the floor without having to sit down to rest and it was hard for me to keep about and do my work. I went to a doctor and he told me I had a displacement and ulcers, and would have to have an operation. This frightened me so much that I did not know what to do. Having heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I thought I would give it a trial and it made me as well as ever. I cannot say enough in favor of the Pinkham remedies."—Mrs. MAYME ASBACH, North Crandon, Wis.

Testimony from Oklahoma.

Lawton, Okla.—"When I began to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I seemed to be good for nothing. I tired easily and had headaches much of the time and was irregular. I took it again before my little child was born and it did me a wonderful amount of good at that time. I never fail to recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to ailing women because it has done so much for me."—Mrs. A. L. McCASLAND, 509 Have St., Lawton, Okla.

From a Grateful Massachusetts Woman.

Roxbury, Mass.—"I was suffering from inflammation and was examined by a physician who found that my trouble was caused by a displacement. My symptoms were bearing down pains, backache, and sluggish liver. I tried several kinds of medicine; then I was asked to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has cured me and I am pleased to be in my usual good health by using it and highly recommend it."—Mrs. B. M. Osgood, 1 Haynes Park, Roxbury, Mass.

MRS. CLAYTON'S LETTER

To Run-Down Nervous Women
Louisville, Ky.—"I was a nervous wreck, and in a weak, run-down condition when a friend asked me to try Vinol. I did so, and as a result I have gained in health and strength. I think Vinol is the best medicine in the world for a nervous, weak, run-down system and for elderly people."—Mrs. W. C. CLAYTON, Louisville, Ky.
Vinol is a delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil, guaranteed to overcome all run-down, weak, debilitated conditions and for chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis.

Sloan's Liniment

Re. 1 this unsolicited grateful testimony—

Not long ago my left knee became lame and sore. It pained me many restless nights. So serious did it become that I was forced to consider giving up my work when I chanced to think of Sloan's Liniment. Let me say—less than one bottle fixed me up.

CORPORAL PUNISHMENT PROHIBITED IN SOUTH CAROLINA

An Opinion Rendered by the Attorney General's Office at Request Secretary Board of Charities.

February 1, 1916.

Mr. Albert S. Johnstone, Secretary, State Board of Charities and Corrections, Columbia, S. C.

Dear Sir:

I am in receipt of yours of the 31st of January, in which you ask whether or not it is lawful for convicts on chaingangs in this state, or convicted persons in any other class of penal institutions to be whipped. You refer me to Article I. Section 19 of the constitution of 1895.

In reply thereto I will say that this section provides that "excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fine imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted, nor shall any witness be unreasonably detained. Corporal punishment shall not be inflicted. The power to punish for contempt shall not in any case extend to imprisonment in the state penitentiary."

The prohibition against the infliction of corporal punishment extends, in my opinion, not only to prohibiting the courts from sentencing a convict to corporal punishment, as was formerly permitted years ago under some of our laws, but in my opinion this prohibition extends also to convicts who are confined in the penitentiary or upon the chain gangs and it is unlawful to inflict corporal punishment upon them.

It is clear to my mind that if a sentence of corporal punishment is unconstitutional, as it is, certainly the infliction of such punishment, without sentence, would be unlawful.

You ask further regarding the recall by the county supervisor of a convict from the penitentiary to work on the roads of his county when said convict was sentenced to the penitentiary, as provided for in act No. 366, Acts of 1914, and as compared with Article XII, section 9, of the constitution of 1895, especially as regards section 2 of the above named act, which reads as follows: "That said convicts shall be under the absolute custody and control of the supervisor and whatever guards he may appoint." You ask if it is constitutional for a convict sentenced to the penitentiary to be recalled therefrom and put on the public work of any county.

In reply thereto I will say by act No. 110, acts of 1911, which was amended and re-enacted by act No. 312 of the Acts of 1912, it is provided that all able-bodied male convicts shall be sentenced to hard labor on the public works of the county in which convicted, without regard to the length of the sentence, and in the alternative, to imprisonment in the county jail or the state penitentiary at hard labor.

Under these acts all convicts are sentenced with the alternative to the chaingang, jail or state penitentiary, except such convicts as are sentenced by special order of the presiding judge to the state penitentiary when it is considered unsafe or unwise for such convict to be committed to the county chaingang.

The general assembly has the right to designate the punishment for crime and the place and manner in which such punishment shall be inflicted, so long as such punishment is within the provisions of article I, section 19, of the constitution.

Article XII, section 9, of the constitution in providing, that the penitentiary and convicts hereto sentenced shall be forever under the supervision and control of the officers employed by the state, and in case any convicts are hired or farmed out, as may be provided by law, their maintenance, support, medical attention and discipline shall be under the direction of officers detailed for those duties by the authorities of the penitentiary, refers, in my opinion, only to such convicts as may be at the time confined and within the control of the state penitentiary, and is principally directed to hiring and farming out of such convicts to private parties, as was the custom several years ago before the institution of our various county chain gangs.

I am of the opinion that act No. 306, Acts of 1914, does not offend Article XII, section 9, of the constitution of 1895, and that it was within the power of the general assembly to authorize the county supervisors to take charge of these convicts and work them on the road and thereby change their place of punishment, or to change the manner, method and place of punishment in any other manner, provided that such action on the part of the general assembly does not increase the punishment and sentence to which the convict has been sentenced and does not offend Article I, section 19, of the constitution.

Trusting that this gives you the desired information, I am,

Yours very truly,

Taos H. Peeples,
Attorney General.

Whenever You Need a General Tonic Take Grove's

The Old Standard Grove's Tasteless chill Tonic is equally valuable as a General Tonic because it contains the well known tonic properties of QUININE and IRON. It acts on the Liver, Drives out Malaria, Enriches the Blood and Builds up the Whole System. 50 cents.
